

Legal Update: Charlie Bennett

The Election lawsuit appeal brought by James Powers was upheld and deemed frivolous resulting in a judgement by the State Appellate Court that not only was the September 2020 election valid but that Powers must reimburse the RLCA costs for the appeal. This will result in about $15,000 coming back into the RLCA budget.